

Ecovillagers Alliance
Study Circle Pilot, Fall/Winter 2019-2020

Drafted by Joel Rothschild
September 2019

For the first time, Ecovillagers Alliance is offering facilitated Study Circles for groups organizing new Community Land Cooperatives and Ecovillage Neighborhoods! This offer is for groups in NYC, central New Jersey, and southeastern Pennsylvania, from Fall 2019 to Spring 2020.

What You Get

- Up to six day-long workshops with in-person facilitation by Ecovillagers Alliance Servant-Leaders
- Hands-on guidance through the critical early stages of a new cooperative community
- Collaborative help establishing a vision, group culture, strategic plan, and legal organization for your Community Land Co-op and Ecovillage Neighborhood
- Curated access to tons of learning material, templates, exercises, and best practices drawn from many communities who've gone before
- Support as leaders and teachers empowered to pay it forward in your own community

What It Takes

- A minimum of two community members with the seed of vision
- A maximum of eight community members committed to being leaders and teachers
- Commitment of all participants to one 8-hour day (intro seminar) or six (full Study Circle)
- Economic support to offset Ecovillagers Alliance's cost
